1. Chow Yu Hin

I am glad that I am one of the students of the MEEM Department. In these three years, I have tried many different activities that I never had the chance to participate before such as organizing the departmental society, participating in a drama and joining a guitar workshop. I really enjoyed these activities as I can learn more skills other than the knowledge from my own study. In addition, my interpersonal skills and leadership have been improved through these activities.

Although I put a lot of time in the extra-circular activities, I also understand the importance of building my career for the future. I have participated in some visits and activities organized by HKIE. Besides, I also keep updated information of my interest.

2. Louie Yuen Tung

I think that I am able to get this award. I am a hard working student and have put a lot of time into my study. I can learn ideas in a logical and systematical way, especially on some technical problems, and analyze and solve problems precisely and quickly.

In addition, I have a great deal of interest in studying. Not only do I concentrate on mechanical or electrical related subjects, I am also interested in some common subjects such as computing and language skills.

In my university life, I was one of the committee members of Manufacturing Engineering and Engineering Management Society (MEEMS) last year and now I am the chairperson of the MEEMS Council. I have tried my best to contribute to the student society and to help all MEEMS members as much as possible.

Besides academic studies, I have also joined many different kinds of activities at City University of Hong Kong which include Social Service Team, Society of Investment and Finance, and the Astronomy Club. I know the importance of an all-round knowledge and will not limit myself to mechatronics study.

3. Ma Lai Yin

My knowledge in three years’ studies in BSc (Hons) Industrial Engineering and Engineering Management at City University of Hong Kong will contribute to the community. I have experienced valuable relationships with different people through coordinating activities in the Rotaract Club such as the Mainland Exchange Trip, Home for the Elderly Visit and Leadership Training Camp, etc. As a Student Mentor, I always take part in organizing the activities and try my best to provide mentees with advice. Having served in the First Year Student Support Centre, it gave me an opportunity to share my experience to CityU freshmen.

Currently, I have joined the Co-operative Scheme and applied my knowledge acquired in these three-years’ University in an actual workplace. My capabilities and confidence enable me to provide advice and assistance to the company to develop a Safety Management System.

4. Shih Li Li

In these three years’ university life, I have actively taken up different responsibilities and joined different kinds of activities organized by the university or community centres. The experience that most impressed me is the organizing of the Joint Universities’ Famine 30 because the preparation time was over half a year and the expected participants were over 800 people. Through this activity, my interpersonal skill was enhanced because I had to meet and work with people from different organization, such as students from different universities, representatives from World Vision and sponsors. More importantly, this function was once called for cancellation due to poor recruitment. However, the function was finally and successfully organized because all the members in the organizing team, including myself, has put a lot of effort to invite our friends to join and to find more sponsors. Academically, I have been one of the organizing team members of Young Engineer Project (YEP) and student helper in the Hong Kong Institution of Engineer – MIE Division. These experiences have provided me the chance to exchange knowledge with experts and students from similar department in different universities and also led me to attend many seminars to enrich my knowledge.

To my understanding, an outstanding student in the department should not only focus on academic results, he/she should be excelled in different aspects such as: sports, leisure activities, etc. Apart from this, he/she should have commitments in serving both the university and community. Based on these understandings, I believe that I can fulfill all the requirements to be one of the outstanding students in this department and I hope I will have this honor.

5. Wong Shui Yee

In the past three years' life in university, I have participated in 16th MEEMDS, Mentoring Scheme, HKIE MIE Division Sub-Committee and organized various functions. The experiences in these associations not only taught me how to cope with others, they but also trained me how to handle a project in an independent and proper manner. Besides, self-motivation and positive attitude are also developed.

I believe that I deserve this award because my past accomplishments in academic study, leadership and services were attained at a certain level. Moreover, I wish to share my enjoyable experience in university to other MEEM students.

3. Service to Community

4. Other areas of Achievement
   - Gold medal in Badminton Competition (Mixed), 16th MEEMDS (2001)
   - Copper medal in bowling Competition, 16th MEEMDS (Apr 2001)

5. Other relevant information
   - Dean’s List, City University of Hong Kong - Faculty of Science and Engineering (2001/2002)
   - Scholarship Award, Institute of Industrial Engineers (2002)
   - IEE Hong Kong Award, The IEE Hong Kong (2003)
6. Zhang Hanshen

I apply for this award because I see my accumulated service record, academic results and other achievements deserve it.

I think that in order to be an outstanding student, we should not aim to make ourselves too prominent in a community, but to exercise our best as a community member and to serve it and to improve its solidarity. This belief gradually equips me with a character, a quality that wins me numerous prizes. I never keep those honors private, as the efforts which lie behind them come from my sincerest wish to do better as a community member.
